MRS. HELENA BLAV,
Young Milwaukee Society Woman.

THOUSAND cured women have written to tell how Wine of Cardui bestows the blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor alike. Mrs. Helena Blav, No. 123 Seventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis., is one of the young women whom Wine of Cardui has rescued from a life of suffering. She writes:

Mrs. Helena Blav.

"Wine of Cardui is certainly 'worn out' women's best friend and I am pleased to give my experience with it. A few months ago I caught a severe cold, having been out in inclement weather, which settled all over me, particularly in the abdomen. I was in almost constant pain. I consulted a physician and took his medicine for a month and without any relief. I then decided I would try your medicine and it was a lucky day for me when I did so. I noticed a change in a few days and felt encouraged to continue taking Wine of Cardui, and my patience was rewarded, for in two weeks my pains had left me and I felt like a new woman."

The woman who has suffered from female weakness should do anything within reason to secure health. Wine of Cardui is the medicine that appeals to reasonable women—women who hold operations and cutting in horror—women who know that Nature is the best physician. Wine of Cardui gives women back their health by giving Nature a chance to build up the wasted and diseased tissue. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow and Nature, when relieved of the drains or of the poisons in the system, makes the functional organs strong and healthy again. Any woman who is silently suffering untold pains because she is too sensitive to undergo a physician's examination and treatment can find no excuse for not securing relief when Wine of Cardui is offered to her. There is no publicity to deter her. She can take Wine of Cardui in the privacy of her home, with as much assurance of a final cure as though a dozen doctors recommended it. Many physicians do recommend Wine of Cardui to their patients. Why not get a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

READY

AT BRINK OF GRAVE. POPE HAS PNEUMONIA

Pope Leo Is Now Hovering Between Life and Death,

Dr. Laponi Says He Has Slight Attack of That Ailment.

IN THE DARK VALLEY SLEEP WAS SOOTHING

It Has Been Decided to Call on For the Purpose of Having a Consultation a Couple of Eminent Physicians.

Thursday Morning the Pontiff Upon Awakening Gave Evidence of Having Experienced a Definitely Good Change.

Rome, July 9.—1:15 a. m.—The life of Pope Leo continues to hang by a thread with the expectation that any moment may bring the end. Yet the wonderful vitality of the remarkable old man is combatting a complication of diseases which would endanger a strong man in the prime of life. It appears that every one in the Vatican is obliged to give way to overpowering fatigue, so much more tranquil is it in the palace than outside, people still congregating on the piazza of St. Peter's. The corner of the palace, which remained lighted the longest, was the apartment of Cardinal Rampolla, where the lights were extinguished only a short time after those in the room where Mgr. Volpini, one of the pontiff's most intimate friends, is lying in a serious condition as a result of an attack of syncope. Pope Leo, as though he had second sight, has asked several times why Mgr. Volpini had not been to see him. Naturally, the condition of Mgr. Volpini has been kept from the pope.

Throughout Wednesday the reports from the sick room alternated with fears and hopes. At times rumors of the gravest character gained circulation. Out of the mass of contradictory reports, the essential features of the pope's actual condition are indicated in the bulletins issued at 9:45 Wednesday morning and at 8:15 by the two attending doctors. The bulletin was notably free from the technical language. During the night the pope secured little refreshing sleep and with this sleeplessness was augmented depression. The difficulty in breathing had increased and a derangement of the kidneys began to manifest itself. These complications were fully and frankly stated by the doctors.

Their official bulletin was supplemented in the course of personal conversation in which they showed that they entertained scarcely any hopes of recovery.

CONDITION WEDNESDAY.

His Breathing Was Calm and His General Condition Improved.

Rome, July 9.—Notwithstanding the sensational dispatches published in London, Wednesday passed without any attack of fainting, although the pope has grown steadily weaker, and is now greatly prostrated. The pulse is less frequent but a little more regular. The breathing is calm and the general condition improved.

While the pope lies on his death bed the finger of death seems also to have touched one of his most intimate friends, Mgr. Volpini, whom he, the other day appointed secretary of the consistorial congregation. Mgr. Volpini was stricken with syncope Wednesday. He fell to the floor, but was carried to his apartment and Dr. Laponi was hurriedly summoned from the pope's bedside.

The official bulleting of the pope's condition was issued at 8:15 Wednesday afternoon, as follows:

The remainder of the day has passed without recurrence of fainting attacks. The pulse is less frequent, though a little more regular. The breathing is calm and the general condition improved.

LAPPONI, MAZZONI.

Gibbons Off For Rome.

CAPTURED STEAMERS.

Venezuela's Revolutionists Said to Have Seized American Vessels.

Port of Callao, Peru, July 9.—The French gunboat, Levenez, passed here on her way to Ciudad Bolivar, Venezuela, which is in the hands of the revolutionists to protect French interests and collect documents relating to claims arising from the revolution. The postoffice authorities at Ciudad Bolivar having detained them for three months to prevent them being presented to the mixed tribunal. It is reported from Ciudad Bolivar, Venezuela, that the Venezuelan government forces captured three American steamers near Apure and that the revolutionists at Ciudad Bolivar have captured two American vessels.

Largest Ever Made at El Paso.

El Paso, July 9.—Public announcement was made of the sale of the Tanner-Pennabaker hardware store to Jacob and Samuel Krantzthorn of Laredo for $55,000. This is the largest deal of its kind ever made in El Paso.

Foreign Corporations.

Austin, July 9.—The records of the secretary of state show that during the month of June foreign corporations were admitted to do business in Texas whose combined capital stock exceeds $5,000,000.

Rome, July 9.—By a special favor a correspondent of the Associated Press here was allowed to visit the papal apartments, where he had an interview on the situation with a personage who is better informed than any one else, but who from motives easily understood does not wish to have his name mentioned. He said: "The first positive sign of amelioration in the pope's condition since he was taken ill was seen this morning."

The august patient rested well enough during the greater part of the night. It was not sleep prostration or collapse, but peaceful and natural, so much so that the benefits are quite visible. His temperature is 96, which is quite normal for the pontiff, considering his age and present condition. What is important is his temperature never rose above normal and never even reached a feverish state. He now has a slight cough and his kidneys are still deranged, but the secretion of urine, although very scarce, are somewhat augmented, which proves his heart is stronger and his circulation better, as demonstrated by a complete disappearance of cyanosis, so that his hands again have taken a natural, almost diaphanous aspect."

Dr. Laponi informed the prelates who were waiting in the antechamber that he examined the matter which the pope expectorated through coughing and he said he was able to confirm the diagnosis, having found traces of blood, clearly demonstrating the existence of pneumonia. Every one noticed that while in the past Dr. Laponi has never participated in the rejoicings and enthusiasm over the announced or imaginary amelioration in the pope's condition, remaining always extremely reserved and anxious looking, for the first time Dr. Laponi's face is tranquil and even hopeful looking, though it is said that he is far from believing in the real, definite and lasting amelioration which would lead to the pontiff's recovery.

BETTER THURSDAY.

Pope Experienced a Surprising Change in His Physical Condition.

Rome, July 9.—The pope is sufficiently well to be shaved. His functional disorders have passed and a consultation with other physicians is now considered to be unnecessary. The pope, on learning that Cardinal Rampolla, the papal secretary of state, desired to see him, received the cardinal. The pontiff said he had seen with great pleasure how the sacred college was interested in him and he was equally gratified at the manifestations from the good people of Rome. After this his holiness spontaneously asked Cardinal Rampolla whether there were any urgent affairs to deal with and the cardinal made a short summary of the principal pending questions. The pope interested himself in all of them, and the conversation turning again to the pontiff's condition, he said: "Weakness has always been my greatest pre-occupation." Dr. Laponi, on leaving the pope's bedroom, said: "I cannot yet say that I hope, but I no longer despair."

Cardinal Gibbons Shills.

New York, July 9.—Cardinal Gibbons, accompanied by his secretary, Father Garvin, sailed on the steamship La Touraine.

PATHETIC SUICIDE.

Young Lady Takes Her Life Because of Her Love For Her Brother.

Cincinnati, July 9.—Heartbroken because she could not marry her brother, Miss Henrietta Distler, aged eighteen years, committed suicide by taking poison. The girl and her brother, George, aged twenty years, came to this country when they were infants. They lost their parents and were cared for in the children's home in this city. Subsequently the girl was adopted by Herman Neiderhelm and the boy by another family. They never knew of their relationship until a year ago and after it was discovered an intense affection sprang up between the two. The two young people continued to see each other until two weeks ago, when the young man discontinued his visits. Distler met her Wednesday evening and held her that while he would regard her as a sister he could not marry her. She then returned to her home and took Paris green and died several hours later. She left a pitiful farewell letter in which she declared her love for her brother and requested him not to marry for two years after her death.

Lyons Acquitted.

Crowley, La., July 9.—The jury in the case of the state vs. D. S. Lyons returned a verdict of not guilty. Mr. Lyons has been on trial for his life, charged with having assaulted his eighteen-year-old daughter, Jenna.

DR. HOUSTON'S WELCOME

TO THE FARMERS' CONGRESS TUESDAY NIGHT WAS WARM AND CORDIAL.

THE TEXAS FARMERS' CONGRESS

Listened to Some Splendid Addresses Wednesday and Yesterday—Notes, Personals and Incidents of the Session.

Dr. Houston's address of welcome, Tuesday night, was such a warm and hearty one that the farmers must have felt like they were indeed "at home" at the A. and M. College. It was logically, sensibly cordial and sincere, and his speech was a good one. "Ladies and gentlemen," said the speaker, "this College, at which, by your constitution, you hold your meetings, is dedicated to your use. The authorities constantly have this in view. * * * I now invite you to return here next year, and to note what changes we have made, and if the College is progressing in its work."

The address of welcome was responded to by J. W. Howell of Weatherford, in a neat and sensible speech.

The speech of Dr. S. A. Knapp of Crowley, La., at Wednesday evening's session, on the work of the Department of Agriculture and on Alfalfa, was one of the notable talks of the entire session. Dr. Knapp is an agent of the department and has been for a number of years. He gave a clear idea of some of the new work of the department, in establishing demonstration farms. Great regions of this country have peculiar conditions to be met before some profit able form of agriculture can be undertaken, and such regions settled. For instance the rice country of Louisiana and Texas. Dr. Knapp referred to the apparent worthlessness of great stretches of coast country land several years ago. The agricultural department sent a man all over the world to get varieties of rice that would be adapted to the peculiar conditions. The result is apparent to all. He told how the department is establishing demonstration farms in the semi-arid region of West Texas and in the pine woods section of East Texas, whose peculiar soil has appeared worthless after timber has been removed. The department is represented by Dr. Knapp as doing a great deal of useful work now in addition to its ancient and peculiar mission of sending out garden seeds to the constituents of the congressmen.

Prof. W. D. Gibbs, director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station made a most practical talk in which he told something of the educational work done by the agricultural department of the A. and M. College. He had brought upon the stage some of the apparatus used in teaching the agricultural course and showed how the boys were given actual demonstrations of the principles of agriculture. Prof. Gibbs' idea seemed to be to correct any erroneous impressions that may exist in the minds of the farmers present, that the agricultural course is a lot of book theories. He showed that it is practical, useful information that is taught, and that it is such knowledge as a farmer has need to apply every day in his business. He made a fine impression on the audience, and many a man who heard it will have hereafter a higher opinion than before of College work in teaching agriculture.

Yesterday's business consisted of independent sessions of state organizations morning and evening, and a meeting of the Congress last night for general business, and the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Prof. H. P. Atwater was on the program for a lecture last night before the Congress.

* * *

Congress Notes.

Congressman-elect Jack Beall of Waxahachie is a member of the strong delegation that Ellis county sent to the Farmers' Congress.

* * *

All sections of Texas are represented at the Congress, as are also all the different forms of agriculture and allied interests.

* * *

The business of farming is exalted in the eyes of the youth of the land by such meetings as the Farmers' Congress is, and young men will be attracted to it thereby as a high and honorable calling. The Farmers' Congress move is fraught with the highest good for the people and the state.

* * *

The Eagle reporter asked representatives of different organizations, as the Nurserymen, the Live Stock association and others, if their sessions were as good, being held at the College at the same time that various other organizations meet, as they were heretofore, when independent meetings were held in different parts of the state. The reply was that the meetings are better. They are equally satisfactory in point of the conduct of meetings, and are better attended.

* * *

Dr. M. Francis is delighted at being afforded the opportunity to entertain a large number of the veterinary surgeons of Texas. They were at the Congress in considerable numbers, and Dr. Francis showed them a good time. While there they held a meeting of the State Veterinary Medical association, of which Dr. Francis is president. A number of important papers were read.

* * *

Will S. Mayes, editor of the Brownwood Bulletin, showed The Eagle man through his Brown County exhibit. In addition to a most interesting collection of products, there are photos of Brownwood's colleges, residences, street scenes, etc. Mr. Mayes is doing a great work for his county.

All we have heard have expressed themselves most favorably regarding our city. Much good advertising for the Central Texas Fair has been done during the session of the Congress.

H. P. Atwater, industrial and immigration agent for the Southern Pacific, was one of the prominent figures and speakers of the Farmers' Congress, and has promised to attend the Central Texas fair and deliver an address before the farmers' institute to be held in connection with the fair. Mr. Atwater is a fine speaker and one of the best posted men in Texas.

Chas. S. Gainer of Millican was in town yesterday. Chas. has been attending the Farmers' Congress and expatiating upon the merits of the Jersey cattle on the Johnson stock farm in which he is interested. He reports the sale of 23 head of registered Jersey cows to parties in Houston last week, two fine bulls to a Dallas man and seven bred heifers to Brownwood parties this week.

Rev. A. M. Stewart left yesterday for Southeast Texas to attend an educational meeting in the interest of the Bryan institute of which he is president. He regretted very much to leave during the meeting now in progress but he had made the engagement some months and could not afford to overlook it. The meeting will continue throughout the week with preaching at the usual hours by Rev. J. L. Meads.

Little as you might think of it the Brazos county exhibit at the Farmers' Congress has started inquiry for lands here already. More than one man came to Bryan yesterday to inquire about the prices of land in this county. Persistence along this line will be found to pay big in the making of business and increase of values in Bryan and over the county. The Business League could do no wiser or more important thing than to get up such exhibits at Palestine, Houston and wherever space can be had at fairs, carnivals and shows. When you show such an array of products as this, you interest people at once in the lands upon which they grow.

BRAZOS COUNTY WON.

The Brazos county exhibit at the Farmers' congress was awarded first prize by the judges. The announcement was made yesterday afternoon. The credit for this honor is without reserve due to the farmers of the county whose interest and good work made the result possible.

ASSEMBLE AT ATLANTA

Thirtieth Annual Session of Baptist Young People's Union.

FIVE THOUSAND MEET

Usual Addresses of Welcome Made at First Session and a Number of Speeches Delivered on Interesting Topics.

Atlanta, Ga., July 9.—With an attendance estimated at 5000 and delegates representing almost every section of the United States and Canada, the thirtieth annual convention of the International Baptist Young People's union was called to order in this city for a four days' session by President John H. Chapman of Chicago. The opening session of the convention was preceded by a praise service, which was led by a grand chorus of 600 voices. The delegates to the convention were welcomed by Governor Terrell on behalf of the state Mayor Howell on behalf of Atlanta and former Governor Northern on behalf of the Georgia Baptist Young People's Union. Emory W. Hunt, president of Denison university, Granville, O., responded to the address of welcome on behalf of the board of managers of the International Union.

The first session of the convention was devoted principally to the appointment of various committees and general routine work and organization of the convention body.

Rev. Spencer B. Meeser, D. D., of the Woodward Avenue Baptist church, Detroit, Mich., spoke on "The Call to Service." An address on "The Motives for Service" was delivered by Rev. W. L. Stackhouse, superintendent of Baptist missions, Winnipeg, Mant.

State, provincial and territorial rallies were held by different organizations of the union.

TEDDY, JR., STOPPED.

Secret Service Men Thought President's Son Was a Marauder.

New York, July 9.—Theodore, Jr., the eldest son of President Roosevelt, has, it is reported, had a narrow escape from being captured as a marauder by the secret service agents who guard his father's home at Oyster Bay. He had been visiting the home of a neighbor, returning to Sagamore Hill about 1 o'clock in the morning. The president and his family had gone to bed and the house was in darkness. The moon was shining brightly, but because of the foliage objects even at a short distance were indistinct. The young man did not come up the path generally used by those going to the house. He took a short cut and approached from the rear. The secret service men on duty did not see him until he was almost on the steps. "What do you want?" one demanded. He was slow in answering and was ordered to throw up his hands. The men covered him until they got close enough to recognize the president's son. He thought it was a good joke. However, the fact that he got so close to the house before he was picked up by the secret service men has resulted in a change in the method of guarding the president. During some of the watches, particularly in the day and during the early hours of the evening only one secret service man has been on duty. After midnight two men went on and remained until after daylight, when those were relieved by the single man, who took up the day watch. Henceforth two men will be on guard at all hours of the day and night.

Found Counterfeit Coin.

Little Rock, Ark., July 9.—A special to the Arkansas Gazette from Bonanza, Ark., says: J. C. Adams, his wife and son, Jeff, were arrested here on charges of making and passing counterfeit money. A counterfeiters' outfit and a can containing $300 worth of spurious coin was found in the Adams barn.

Harvesters Badly Wanted.

Topeka, Kan., July 9.—Over 5000 men are yet needed in the Kansas harvest fields to save the great wheat crop. State Employment Agent Grow has exhausted every effort to obtain men from outside the state, but announced that enough help could not be had. Reduced railroad fare has been obtained and high wages are paid.

LOUBET LEAVES LONDON.

Both There and at Dover He Was Cheered by Thousands of People.

London, July 9.—The visit of President Loubet to London has been brought to a close. The French chief magistrate left Victoria station for Dover. The scenes and incidents of his departure testified to how the republican president, by his unassuming dignity and cordial sincerity, captured all classes and won that popular good will which sovereigns have been unable to achieve. Despite the earliness of his departure crowds lined the route from St. James' palace to the railway station and British "hurrahs" and French "vive Loubet" re-echoed through the streets until the president entered the station. Here the nation's guest was met by the king, Prince of Wales, Duke of Connaught, Lord Landsdowne, Premier Balfour, other ministers, members of the French embassy and a crowd of military and other officials. As M. Loubet's carriage drew up King Edward advanced with outstretched hand and, taking the president familiarly by the arm, led him through the waiting room to the royal car. For a few moments the king and president stood talking with much animation. King Edward grasped M. Loubet's right hand with extreme cordiality, while with his left hand he patted the president on the shoulder. Official as well as well as amateur artists were to be seen in all directions securing snapshots of the striking scene. With renewed handshaking, his majesty showed the president into the royal car and stood chatting with him until the train pulled out amid cheers and shouts of "vive Loubet," mingled with strains of the Marseillaise. President Loubet stood at a window of the car waving his hat in his gloved hand until the royal special disappeared from view.

Upon his arrival at Dover, M. Loubet embarked on the French cruiser Guichen and the vessel sailed at once for Calais, escorted by the British torpedo boat flotilla and followed by farewell salutes from fleet and castle. Before his departure from Dover President Loubet telegraphed to King Edward thanking him for the hearty reception accorded him "as the representative of France, the friend of England."

Text of Telegram.

London, July 9.—The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows: "At the moment of leaving British soil I am anxious to address to your majesty an expression of my love and gratitude for the hearty reception your majesty and her majesty, the queen, the royal family and the British nation extended me as a representative of France, the friend of England."

Met With Great Reception.

Calais, France, July 9.—President Loubet met with a great reception here on his return to French soil. At the public reception which followed the president's arrival here the speakers congratulated M. Loubet on the happy results of his visit to England.

AT AUSTIN.

Matters of the Moment Happening at Capital of Lone Star State.

Austin, July 9.—The following promotions in his department have been announced by Comptroller Stephens: L. P. Erwin of Fort Worth, to be chief bookkeeper; A. E. Devine of San Antonio, chief warrant clerk; R. M. Love (son of the deceased comptroller), assistant warrant clerk; A. D. Boone of Galveston, receiving clerk; J. M. Dunn of Sulphur Springs, mailing clerk.

The railroad commission gave notice that on July 23 it would take up the Galveston Western railroad change of its track matter. The road wishes to make a change so as not to interfere with the seawall of Galveston.

The widow of the late Comptroller Love has received a letter from J. B. Kimball of Groesbeck stating there is a movement on foot there to erect a monument to her husband.

Receipts of the state department for June amounted to $17,998.

The attorney general has handed down an opinion in which he holds that the tenure of office of treasurer of a school board is only during the term of the present board.

WILL NOT PERMIT.

Governor Durbin Says Lee Brown Must Remain in Penitentiary.

Evansville, Ind., July 9.—Governor Durbin refuses to allow Lee Brown to be brought here for trial at this time and this removes the necessity of further holding the large number of troops assembled here. The Evansville company will probably be kept under arms for several days. The funeral of the seven victims of Monday night's trouble was held. There was no excitement. The ministers in their funeral sermons are laying no blame on the troops. In many instances they refer to the loose enforcement of laws as the cause.

Were Warned to Leave.

Mount Vernon, Ind., July 9.—Over 200 colored refugees from Evansville have reached here on trains and other vehicles. They report that they were warned to leave Evansville or be killed. They received threats that their houses would be burned. Several in the delegations were wounded and had their arms in slings.

Three Inches of Rain.

Estherwood, La., July 9.—Three inches of rain, accompanied by terrific thunder and lightning, fell here Wednesday afternoon. Thermometer registered ninety degrees.

No Further Preparations.

Vienna, July 9.—As a result of urgent representation from Austria and Russia Prince Ferdinand has given the strongest assurance that Bulgaria will make no further military preparations against Turkey.

Close Race.

New York, July 9.—Over a leeward and windward course of thirty miles, starting at Sandy Hook lightship, in a rattling breeze, Shamrock III, beat Shamrock I. only four minutes and nine seconds official time.

DR. W. H. WILLSON.

Death of an Aged and Honored Citizen of Bryan Yesterday.

The life of Dr. W. H. Willson passed away at his home in Bryan yesterday morning after a very brief illness, though on account of advanced age and infirmity he has not been in good health for some time, yet he was able to be up and about only twenty-four hours before his death. Friends who but a day before were greeted with his kindly smile and friendly hand clasp were shocked and grieved inexpressibly.

William Henry Willson was born May 29, 1822, in Bellevernon, Pa. He was a graduate of Hanover College, West Hanover, Ind. At the age of 18 he united with the Presbyterian church, of which he was an elder forty years. In 1842 he went to Mississippi, and in 1849 came to Texas. He was engaged in the practice of medicine until the civil war broke out, when he joined the Confederate army, serving with the hospital corps. In 1854 he was married to Miss Margaret Jane Priest, who died in 1860. Two children of this marriage are living Mrs. Wm. Hill and J. M. Willson of Alexandria, La. In 1862 Dr. Willson was married to Emily Thomas Perry. Six children were born to them, four daughters and two sons, Mrs. F. E. Mistrot, Mrs. Eustace Taylor and Mrs. Thomas W. Stewart of Galveston, Miss Lillie Willson and Jacob Willson of Bryan and Walter A. Willson of Austin. After the close of the civil war Dr. Willson engaged in merchandising several years in Smith county. He subsequently resided in Weatherford, and moved to Bryan in 1893.

More than an octogenarian, his life was as pure and blameless as a child's. Deeply religious in his nature, he lived like the prophets of old, in daily communion with his God. He was liberal and charitable in his views and delighted to worship with God's people, whether of his own creed or not. He was ever faithful to the duties of citizenship and was at once gentle and kind, firm and without fear. His life was like a beacon light set upon a high hill to lead men upon the way of integrity and honor—the way of life eternal. Endowed with great physical strength in his youth and young manhood, he was possessed of yet greater spiritual strength in his ripper years and old age.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

GONE AFTER BROWN.

Sheriff Kratz Departed For Jeffersonville to Get Him.

Evansville, July 9.—Acting under orders of Judge Rasch, Sheriff Kratz has left for Jeffersonville to bring back Lee Brown, the wounded negro who killed Patrolman Massey last Friday. It was this killing and the desire of the mob to lynch Brown that precipitated the rioting at Evansville. How Sheriff Kratz will bring the negro, and at what hour he will arrive at Evansville will be kept a secret, if possible. The sheriff took with him one deputy and Dr. Gilbert, who will try to keep Brown alive until tried. If the negro is successfully placed in the Evansville jail his trial for the killing of Patrolman Massey will be rushed through, and unless a change of venue is taken, the troops will be held until the trial is over. A venire of fifty names was secretly drawn. The court house and jail are still guarded night and day by the militia. There were five arrests on grand jury indictments for the rioting on Saturday. Those under arrest are Richard Greensbeck, who is a candidate for clerk; H. P. Howell, a furniture merchant; J. T. Zeigler, William and James Steele. All were released under bond.

Taken With Another Ailment.

Rome, July 9.—The pope has been taken with an attack of diarrhoea, apparently caused by a quantity of food he had eaten and to which he was not accustomed. The new ailment augmented his weakness.

Called in Consultation.

Rome, July 9.—In consequence of the change for the worse in the pope's condition Dr. Rossone has been called in consultation.
